

The Announcement of entrance examination for MA Program in the Academic Year 2019 (entrance in October)

For the entrance examinations for the MA program in the Academic Year 2019 (entrance in October) of the Graduate School of Economics, we change the exam subjects and the materials needed to apply on English Proficiency as follows.

Examination in Economics

There are two subjects, microeconomics and macroeconomics. Each subject has one problem. You have to choose one of the two problems and solve it. Answers must be written in English.

*Econometrics is abolished.

If you retain the following certifications, you can submit the certification, instead of undergoing problems set by us. You have to choose either undergoing problems set by us or submitting the certifications when you apply.

GMAT, GRE

Materials needed to apply on English Proficiency

In addition to an official score report or certificate on TOEFL iBT, TOEFL PBT or TOEIC, you can also submit an official score report or certificate on IELTS.

Details on our changes are shown in the Applicant Guidelines for MA Program in the Academic Year 2019.
